Location Mysteries

Have you ever heard the phrase “you can travel anywhere, when you travel in a book?” This month we’ll be reading mysteries that take us far from home and transport us to a fabulous destination. Location mysteries feature all kinds of sleuths and a varieties of crimes set against a dramatic backdrop. Perhaps it’s a gritty New York neighborhood, a South African desert or a lush hillside vineyard that peaks your interest. Whatever the location readers can certainly travel in these mysteries.

A few examples:

Bangkok 8 by John Burdett (Thailand)

Chain of Evidence by Garry Disher (Australia)

Dangerous Depths by Kathy Brandt (British Virgin Islands)

Last Prophecy by Jon Land (Israel)

Lost Gardens by Anthony Eglin (England)

Meet Me in Venice by Elizabeth Adler (Italy)

Murder in Jerusalem by Batya Gur (Israel)

Murder on the Ballarat Train by Kerry Greenwood (Australia)

Rumpole Misbehaves by John Mortimer (England)

The Ladies No.1 Detective Club by Alexander McCall Smith (Botswana)

The Mummy Case by Elizabeth Peters (Egypt)

The Serpent’s Daughter by Suzanne Arruda (East Africa)

Vineyard Chill by Philip Craig (Martha’s Vineyard)

Feel free to select one of the books listed above or look through the library’s mystery collection to find a book that transports you to a fabulous destination. Not sure where the mystery section is in your library? Ask staff member, we’re always happy to help!
