This register represents the most significant historic properties in Abilene, Texas, as of 1994. Most of these properties have been sighted as being historically significant by surveys done in 1979 and 1989 by qualified consultants. All of these properties have been reviewed by the City of Abilene Landmarks Commission. Reference: Zoning Ordinance, Sections 23-303.2, 23-344, 23-356, and 23-332. This register was authorized by the Landmarks Commission on February 22, 1994.

Bold, Italic = 1985 City Council Resolution 20-1985(as amended) where all building and sign permits must be reviewed by the Landmarks Commission, and historic zoning is to be considered.

Designations: National Register of Historic Places; National Register Historic District; Recorded Texas Historic Landmark; Historic Overlay Zoning

Some copies show the properties with Historic Overlay Zoning in yellow color or a gray shade from a black & white printer. Also, in a color format blue font stands for churches, schools, and other similar properties, black font for residential, and red font for commercial type properties.

As of 12/1/06 there are 417 properties on the Register. 283 have no designations that offer protection from demolition or change.
